

MEDIA ADVISORY

LOS ANGELES RAMS TO BEAUTIFY INGLEWOOD UNIFIED SCHOOL TOMORROW

WHAT:

Los Angeles Rams players, cheerleaders and staff will visit Warren Lane Elementary in Inglewood Unified School District for a school beautification project. The Rams will be joined by parents of Warren Lane Elementary students to help paint and landscape. The Rams have also engaged Sharefest, a local non-profit to help with the beautification effort.

The project is part of the Rams' monthly Day of Service initiative. Each month, the Rams front office staff takes time out of the office to volunteer with local non-profits. During the team's first year home in Los Angeles, Rams employees provided more than 2,000 hours of community service and impacted 10 local non-profits and 19 schools. Since January of 2017, the team has volunteered with six local non-profits and 25 schools through the Staff Day of Service program.

WHO:

Los Angeles Rams Player scheduled to attend: Wide Receiver PAUL McROBERTS

Members of Los Angeles Rams Staff and Cheerleaders

Parents Volunteers from Warren Lane Elementary in Inglewood Unified School District

Dr. Thelma Melendez de Santa Ana, new State Administrator for Inglewood Unified School District

Dr. Jacqueline Landrum Sanderlin, Executive Director of School and Community Relations for Inglewood Unified School District

Steve Donahue, Principal for Warren Lane Elementary

WHEN:

Tuesday, September 26 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

WHERE:

Warren Lane Elementary, 2602 W. 79th St, Inglewood, CA 90305-1032

CONTACT:

Chase Isaacs, Los Angeles Rams, (818) 961-7856, Cisaacs@Rams.nfl.com