LOS ANGELES RAMS TEAM UP WITH LA REGIONAL FOOD BANK TO HOST MOBILE FOOD DISTRIBUTION AT SOFI STADIUM

More Than 4,000 Families Battling Food Insecurity to Be Served

WHAT:

The Los Angeles Rams are teaming up with the LA Regional Food Bank to host a mobile food distribution at the team's new home in Inglewood. The distribution will take place in select parking lots of SoFi Stadium and is expected to serve approximately 4,000 families in need. Rams Cheerleaders, Rampage and front office staff will volunteer to help load meal kits in a socially distanced and safe manner during the mobile drive thru distribution. Each meal kit will include 70 pounds of food, which is enough to provide a week of meals for a family of four. The initiative is part of a series of opening week efforts aimed at tackling social injustices including food insecurity and education inequities.

In March, the Rams hosted a virtual Te'LA'thon and raised more than $2.2 million to assist Southern California response efforts to the COVID-19 pandemic. All contributions benefitted United Way of Greater Los Angeles' Pandemic Relief Fund in direct support of community partners and the LA Regional Food Bank. Rams team captains Jared Goff and Andrew Whitworth each donated $250K to finance a total of 2 million meals for Angelenos in need. Additionally, the team's Annual Taste of the Rams event benefitting the LA Regional Food Bank has raised roughly $650,000 since 2016, providing enough for the Food Bank to distribute more than 2.5 million meals to combat hunger in Los Angeles.
